EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

☐ Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

☐ Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

☐ Active military duty in a military combat zone.

☐ 5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

SCHEDULE F - CREDITORS HOLDING UNSECURED NONPRIORITY CLAIMS

State the name, mailing address, including zip code, and last four digits of any account number, of all entities holding unsecured claims without priority against the debtor or the property of the debtor, as of the date of filing of the petition. The complete account number of any account the debtor has with the creditor is useful to the trustee and the creditor and may be provided if the debtor chooses to do so. If a minor child is a creditor, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. §112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m). Do not include claims listed in Schedules D and E. If all creditors will not fit on this page, use the continuation sheet provided.

If any entity other than a spouse in a joint case may be jointly liable on a claim, place an "X" in the column labeled "Codebtor," include the entity on the appropriate schedule of creditors, and complete Schedule H - Codebtors. If a joint petition is filed, state whether the husband, wife, both of them, or the marital community may be liable on each claim by placing an "H," "W," "J," or "C" in the column labeled "Husband, Wife, Joint, or Community."

If the claim is contingent, place an "X" in the column labeled "Contingent." If the claim is unliquidated, place an "X" in the column labeled "Unliquidated." If the claim is disputed, place an "X" in the column labeled "Disputed." (You may need to place an "X" in more than one of these three columns.)

Report the total of all claims listed on this schedule in the box labeled "Total" on the last sheet of the completed schedule. Report this total also on the Summary of Schedules and, if the debtor is an individual with primarily consumer debts, report this total also on the Statistical Summary of Certain Liabilities and Related Data.

☐ Check this box if debtor has no creditors holding unsecured claims to report on this Schedule F.

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

Law Office of Michael P. Kelleher
Personal Chapter 7 Bankruptcy
Advance Payment Retainer Agreement

I, Terese P. Urso, the undersigned "client", agree to employ Michael P. Kelleher, hereafter referred to as "Attorney", to provide legal services in connection with filing a Chapter 7 bankruptcy for me, and hereby empower and authorize Attorney to do all things, in attorney's discretion, reasonably necessary to bring the matter to a successful conclusion. Client acknowledges that the following advance payment retainer agreement has been fully explained, and client agrees to pay said fees and costs in consideration of legal services rendered or to be rendered.

Client agrees to pay attorney a fee of $800.00 for services set forth below. In addition, client agrees to pay all costs, including the filing fee for the bankruptcy ($335.00). The total Retainer will be $1,135.00.

This retainer agreement is an advance payment retainer agreement. The funds client has agreed to pay attorney shall be deposited into the general operating account of Michael P. Kelleher, not a client trust account, and ownership of said funds shall pass immediately to Michael P. Kelleher upon payment. The special purpose for this advance payment retainer is to allow Debtor to retain Michael P. Kelleher to represent him against creditors. Debtor understands that it is advantageous to treat this retainer as an advance payment retainer in that it protects the funds paid to Michael P. Kelleher from the claims of his creditors.

As my client, it is your option to have your money held as a security retainer. A security retainer is a present payment that is applied to pay for services that an attorney exhausts during representation, but remains client property until it is drawn down. Security retainers are held in a lawyer's client trust account until earned and billed. An advance payment retainer differs from a security retainer in that the ownership of the funds passes immediately to the lawyer upon payment.

It is understood that the above referenced advance payment retainer is a flat fee payment for services rendered and services to be performed. The services include: review of financial status; review of all documents relevant to client's financial situation; counseling as to the various types of bankruptcy chapters; effect of reaffirmation, redemption, surrender of property, and avoidance of certain liens; advice about alternatives to bankruptcy, complete drafting of all documents, revision and redraft of all final bankruptcy documents and all necessary amendments, attending the creditors meeting with client, and closing file. Any portion of the advance payment retainer that is not earned or required for expenses will be refunded to the client.

Client agrees that additional attorney's fees will be due should additional representation become necessary, including, but not limited to representing client in a Rule 2004 examination by a party in interest, any adversary proceedings, any proceeding brought pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 523 where the client is or would be a party, objections to discharge, any motion to dismiss brought pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 707(b)(2) or (b)(3), motions to compel abandonment of property, and motions to redeem personal property pursuant to Section 722. Said additional representation shall be covered by a separate legal services agreement and will require an additional retainer.

Client agrees that should he decide not to file bankruptcy, or to discontinue using attorney's services, attorney may charge against any retainer paid the amount of $350.00 per hour for all services rendered to date, plus actual costs incurred.

Client agrees to cooperate in the preparation of the bankruptcy case, to appear for the creditors' meeting, depositions and court appearances when directed to do so by attorney, and to otherwise comply with all reasonable requests made by attorney throughout the representation in the bankruptcy case. Failure to cooperate may result in court imposed sanctions and Attorney's withdrawal from the case.

Client understands he will receive copies of all court filed documents related to his case. Client shall retain all of said documents as part of his client file. If client requires additional copies of documents previously provided to him, he will be charged a reasonable fee to defray the additional administrative cost to the attorney.

Client understands that his case file is the property of attorney, and shall be kept by the attorney for no more than five years from the date his bankruptcy case is closed in the Federal Bankruptcy Court. After that time the client's file will be destroyed without notice to the client.

Either attorney or client has the right to discontinue the attorney-client relationship. Client may do so for any reason. Attorney may do so on grounds of irreconcilable differences which have arisen between client and attorney, and failure of client to cooperate with attorney and comply with attorney's reasonable requests.

In some cases it may be necessary for attorney to retain counsel outside of attorney's law firm to represent client. This counsel will be paid by attorney at no additional cost to client so long as the representation is of a type contemplated in the flat fee agreement. Client expressly consents to the hiring of said counsel to cover court dates and other matters as needed.

The client understands that it is the client's responsibility to provide attorney with a complete list of the client's creditors and all other information requested on attorney's Debt Listing Sheet and Questionnaire. The client further understands that any debts not listed in his bankruptcy may not be discharged.

The client understands that failure to provide to attorney information necessary for the preparation of client's case can delay the filing of client's case. Attorney is under no obligation to file any document with the court that attorney deems in his professional judgment to be incomplete, inaccurate or misleading. If client fails to provide attorney with information needed in the preparation of client's bankruptcy case, and as a consequence attorney must prepare an amendment and file it with the Bankruptcy Court, client agrees to pay attorney an additional $75.00 to cover the fees and costs related to the preparation and filing of said amendment.

Attorney is not an expert on credit reports, credit histories, credit scores or the interpretation, repair and rehabilitation of same, and attorney makes no representations to client as to the effect a bankruptcy will have on same. Client understands that client is retaining attorney to represent client in his bankruptcy only, and not for any purposes related to the interpretation, repair and rehabilitation of client's credit history, FICO score, or credit scores.

Client understands that client has an obligation to read all written materials provided to client by attorney, the bankruptcy court, creditors and their attorneys. Client understands that obligation includes opening and reading his mail and, if an e-mail address is provided to attorney, checking and reading any e-mails sent by attorney to client.

Attorney is a debt relief agency and helps people file for relief under the Bankruptcy Code.

Special Financial Management Course Notice

Client must provide attorney with a copy of Client's Certificate of Completion of the Personal Financial Management Course. If client fails to ensure that attorney has received and filed the required Certificate of Completion, and the client's bankruptcy case closes without said certificate being filed with the Bankruptcy Court, the client shall be responsible for paying attorney the case reopening fee plus an additional attorney fee of $500.00 to reopen the case and file said Certificate of Completion. Said fees shall be paid by client to attorney in advance before attorney has any obligation to file a motion to reopen client's bankruptcy case.

Special Notice Regarding Creditor Information and Credit Reports

Client must fill out the Debt Listing Sheet provided to him by attorney, providing all information required by the form. Client understands that it is client's responsibility to provide attorney complete information regarding client's debts. Attorney will not accept a copy of client's credit report as a substitute for client completing the Debt Listing Sheet. Attorney will not be responsible for interpreting client's credit reports. If client wishes to use one of his/her credit reports in completing the Debt Listing Sheet he/she of course may do so, but attorney makes no warranties as to the validity of any information client obtains from any such credit report.

By client's signature below, client acknowledges understanding of the terms of this agreement and agrees to abide by its provisions. Client acknowledges he has received a copy of this agreement for his records.

If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
